

DAVISTOWN MUSEUM

2007 FUNDRAISING CAMPAIGN

The Davistown Museum is a tool, art, and regional history museum in Liberty Village, Maine.

Our 2007 fundraising efforts focus on:

- Supporting the daily operations of the museum complex (our most urgent need).
- Supporting our Web site redesign.
- Facilitating the cataloging of our collections.
- Establishing a substantial endowment to support future capital improvements and other special projects.

HOW YOU CAN HELP THE MUSEUM:

- Renew your membership.
- Become a member.
- Become a partner or benefactor.
- Make an annual pledge.
- Patronize the NEW MUSEUM eSTORE.
- Purchase a museum publication.
See the list and order forms on our Web site.
- Purchase books marked "DTM" sold at the Liberty Tool Company, Capt. Tinkham's (Searsport), The Hulls Cove Tool Barn, and the Maine Artists Guild Bookstore to benefit the Museum.
- Buy art from the Maine Artists Guild Gallery. (20% of sales donated to the Museum)
- Purchase something at the Museum Store.
- Donate tools and antiques for our Blue Tag Sale to benefit the museum.
- Consign items for eBay Sales.
$25 minimum value.
On consignments over $100 in value, please consider a 50% owner/50% Museum split.
Please inquire.

Please support the museum by making a donation today.
